Dear Parents/ Carers,

Brumby Junior School fully supports and promotes World Book Day, which is in the first week back after half term (Thursday 2nd March 2017). In celebration of World Book Day we have organized some exciting opportunities that week for the children, including an author visit on Monday 27th February 2017.

We have arranged for the author Daniel Ingram-Brown, who has written the fantastic Firebird Chronicles, to visit the school to read and discuss his works along with launching the Brumby 200 Words competition that we are running during the first week back after half term and on World Book Day itself.

Brumby 200 Words is inspired by, and similar to, the popular BBC Radio2 500 Words competition, but exclusively for Brumby children. Within class, during World Book Day week, children will be taking their inspiration from Daniel Ingram-Brown and using it in their own writing to describe a character within a setting. Daniel will judge the competition and choose a winner from each year group to win a fabulous first prize. There will be other smaller prizes available for some runners up.

During his visit, Daniel Ingram-Brown will bring some extra copies of his books which will be available to buy. They retail on Amazon.co.uk between £6.99 and £8.99, so this is approximately how much money your child will need to bring if they would like to purchase a copy on the day.

Yours sincerely,

Miss H Raspin
